Sir/Madam

It is observed that of late a number of representations from local bodies of Association are being routinely forwarded to the Board. The issues raised by the local bodies of Association need to be resolved/disposed by the CCA themselves rather than routinely forwarding them to the Board.

2. Issues which require the attention of the Board are brought to its notice by the Central Body/ JCA.
3. It is requested that the regional issues raised by the local bodies of Association be handled at the local level by the CCA.

This issues with the approval of Chairman, CBDT.

Yours faithfully,

(Sudhir Kumar)

Joint Secretary to the Govt. of India
